

Axholme Camera Club

Patterns in Nature —February 2019

Report—Alan Keen

Wednesday night saw our sixth internal competition of the season. This was a 3 image panel competition where 12 members took the opportunity to enter. There were a total of 21 panel entries, 12 colour and 9 mono.

The judge, Brian Gromitt, the current president of the LPA, explain the criteria he would use to judge the panels. He gave detailed feed back for all the panels presented, which included useful advice for how to improve the presentation of the panels. He eventually awarded top marks for a colour panel by David Livsey and a mono panel by Mary Fish.

	Author	Title
Colour	David Livesey	Linked Pebble Patterns
Mono	Mary Fish	Frosty cobwebs

EP Trophy Update—After 6 Rounds

Overall	Colour	Mono
Mary Fish (155 points)	Mary Fish (151 points)	Mary Fish (146 points)
Alan Keen (151 points)	Alan Keen (145 points)	Alan Keen (145 points)
David Livsey (150 points)	David Livsey (144 points)	David Livsey (140 points)
Steve Parrish (150 points)		David Neale (140 points)

Please remember you must enter at least 6 rounds to qualify for the trophy.

So far 6 members have submitted entries in 6 rounds, so have already qualified for the EP trophy:

Mary Fish, Alan Keen, David Livesey, Steve Dillion, Steve Parrish and Ken Sykes.

There are 3 more rounds left for those not on this list to qualify.

Congratulations to Keith and Alan and all the other participants.

The next internal competition takes place on Wednesday 12th March 2019.

“Geometry in Buildings and Architecture” - Print Competition—Judge: Lynn Haith